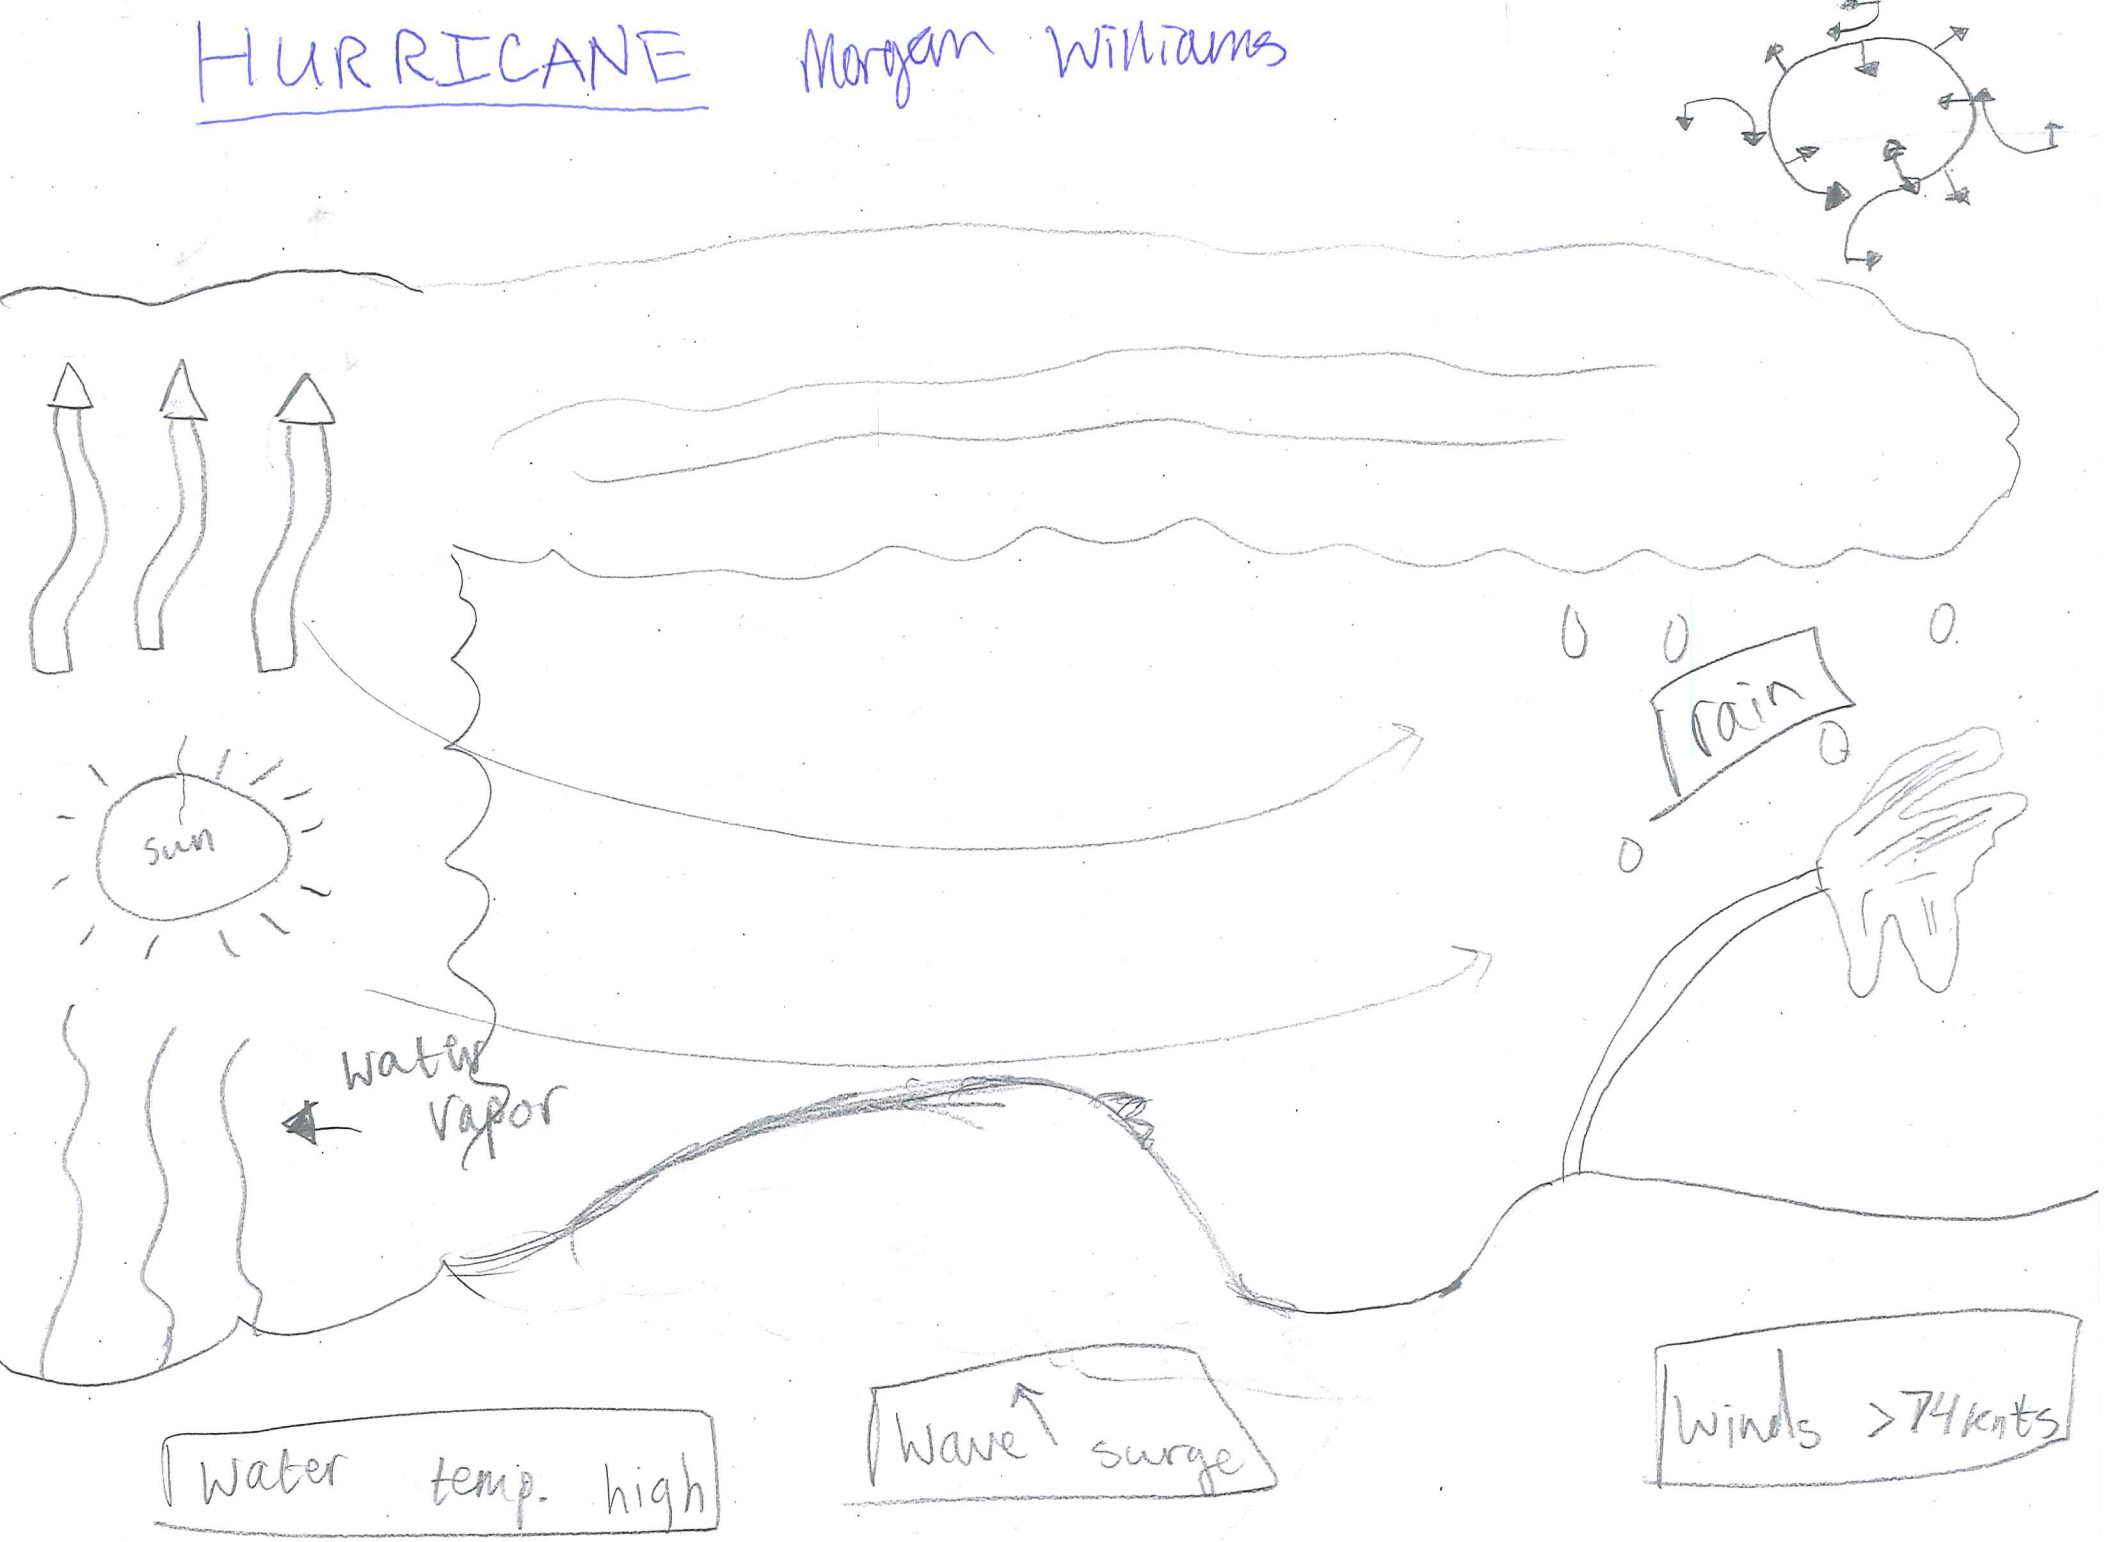
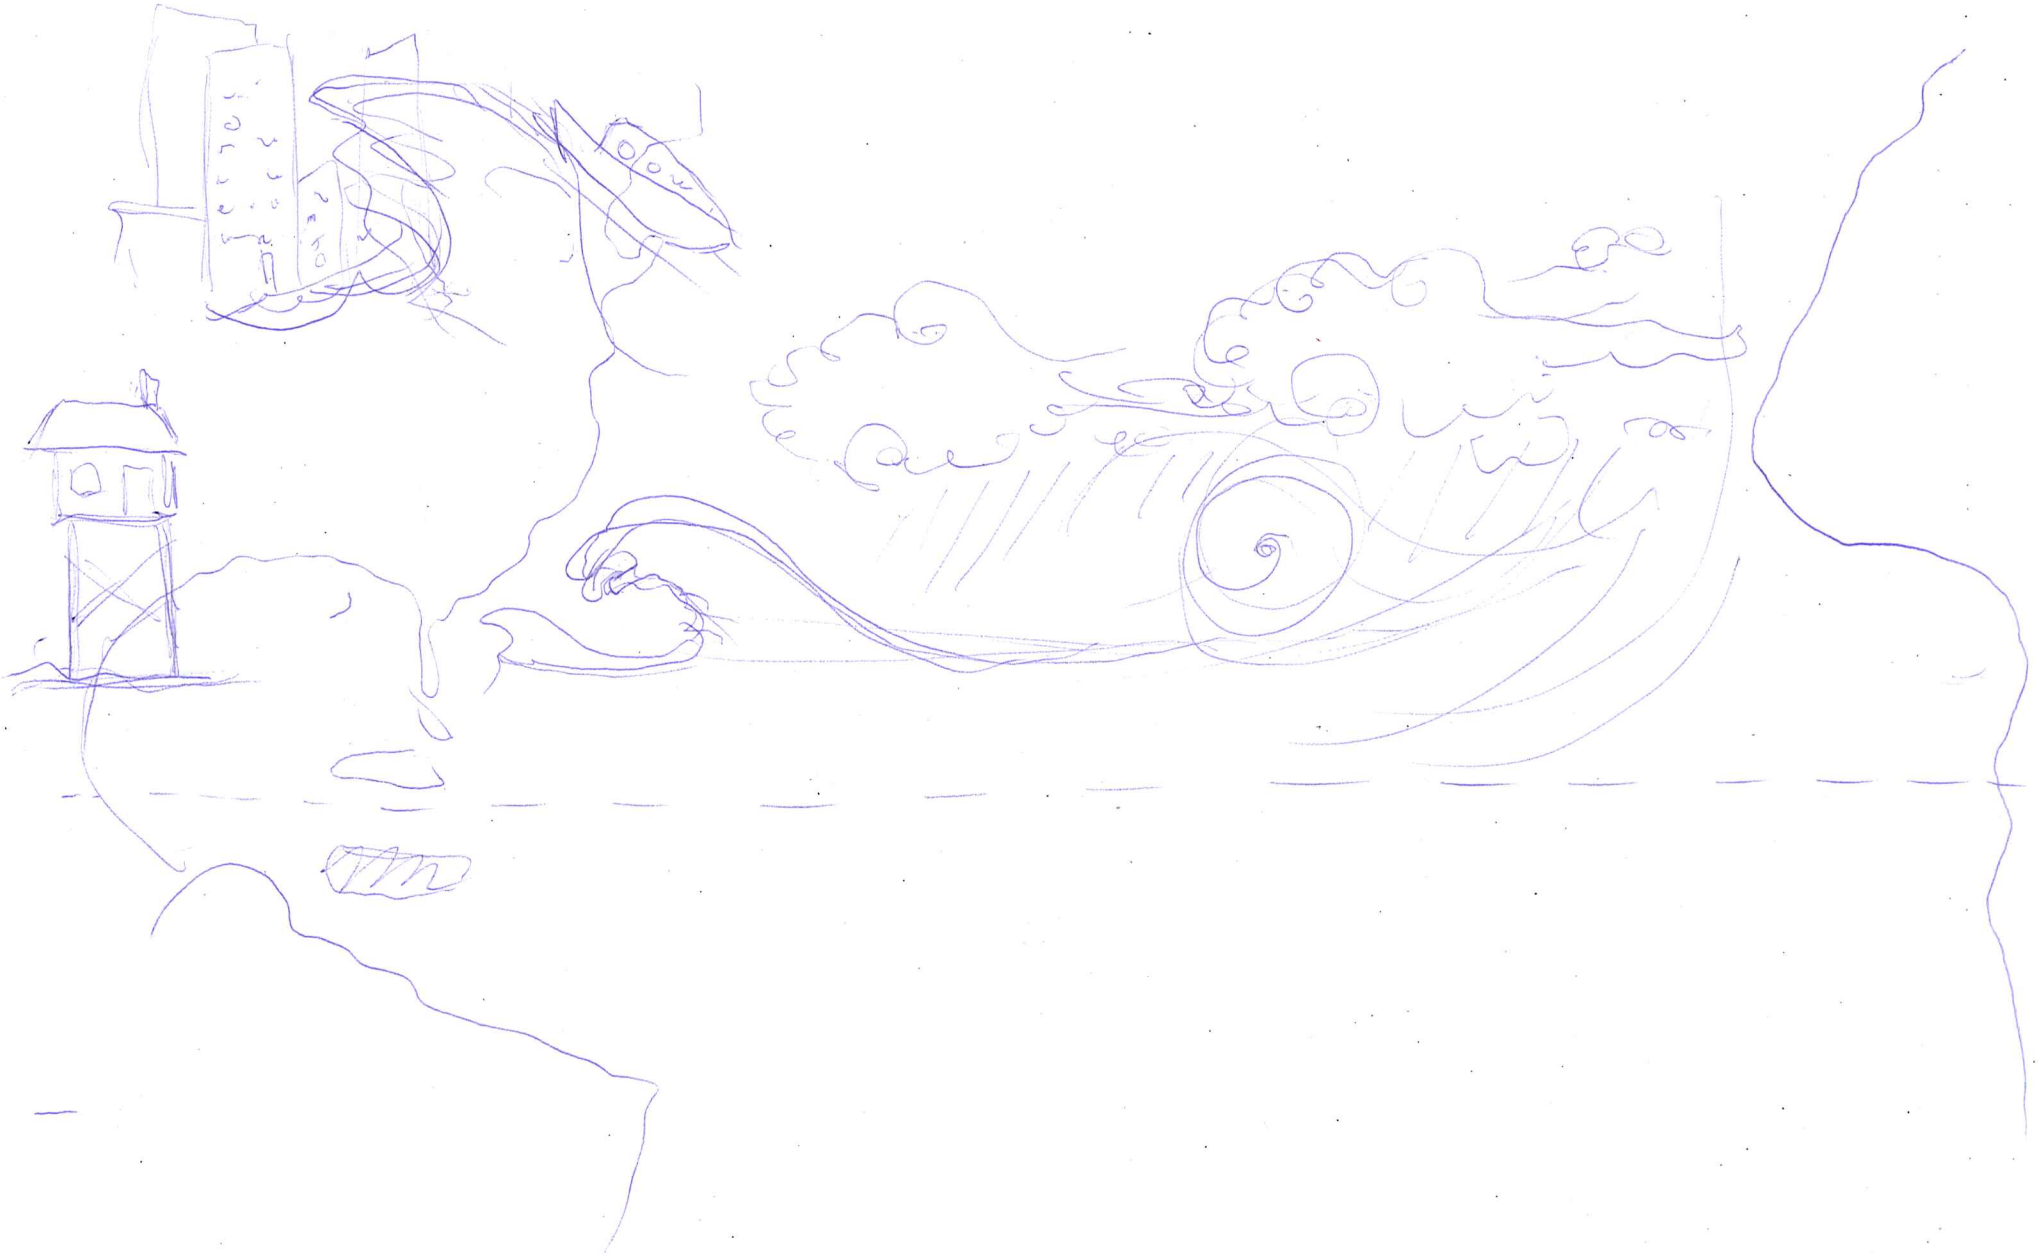
HURRICANE

Morgan Williams



Sarlo



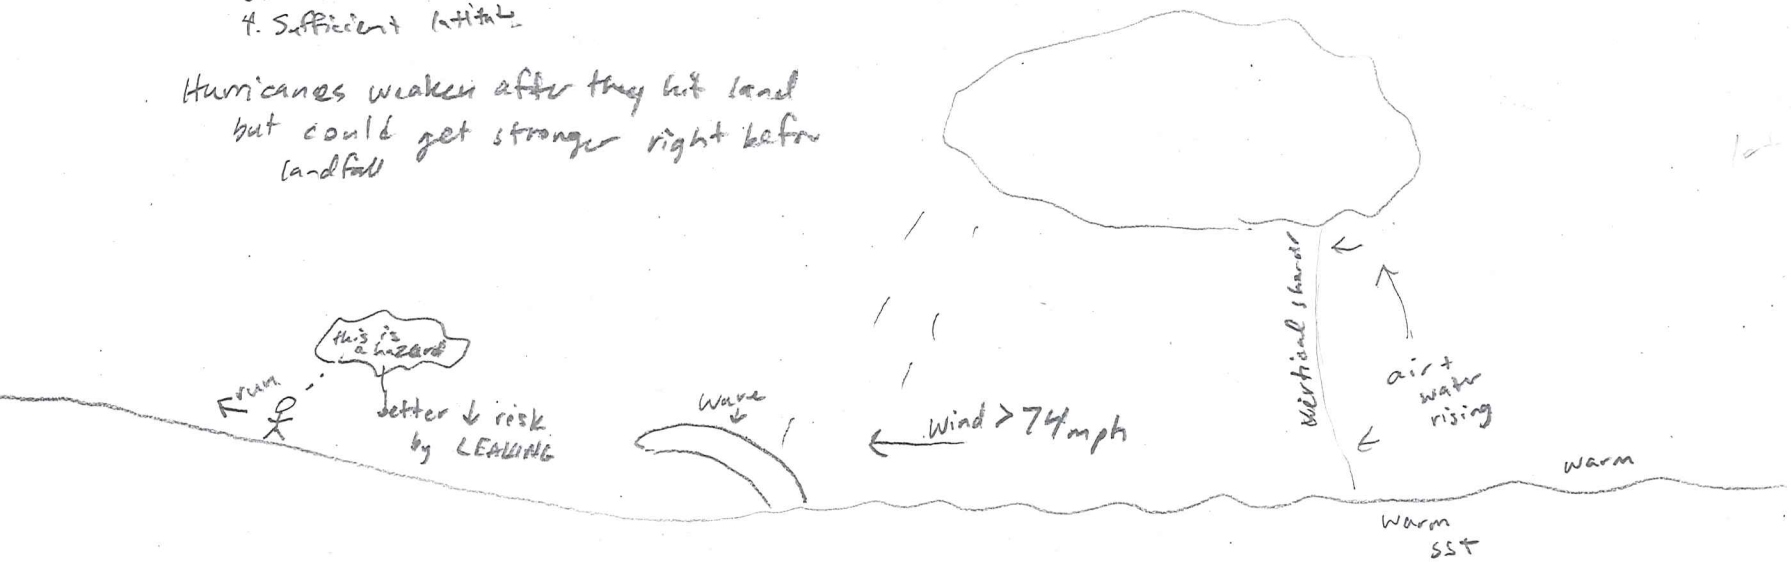
Summary

Caroline Gregory

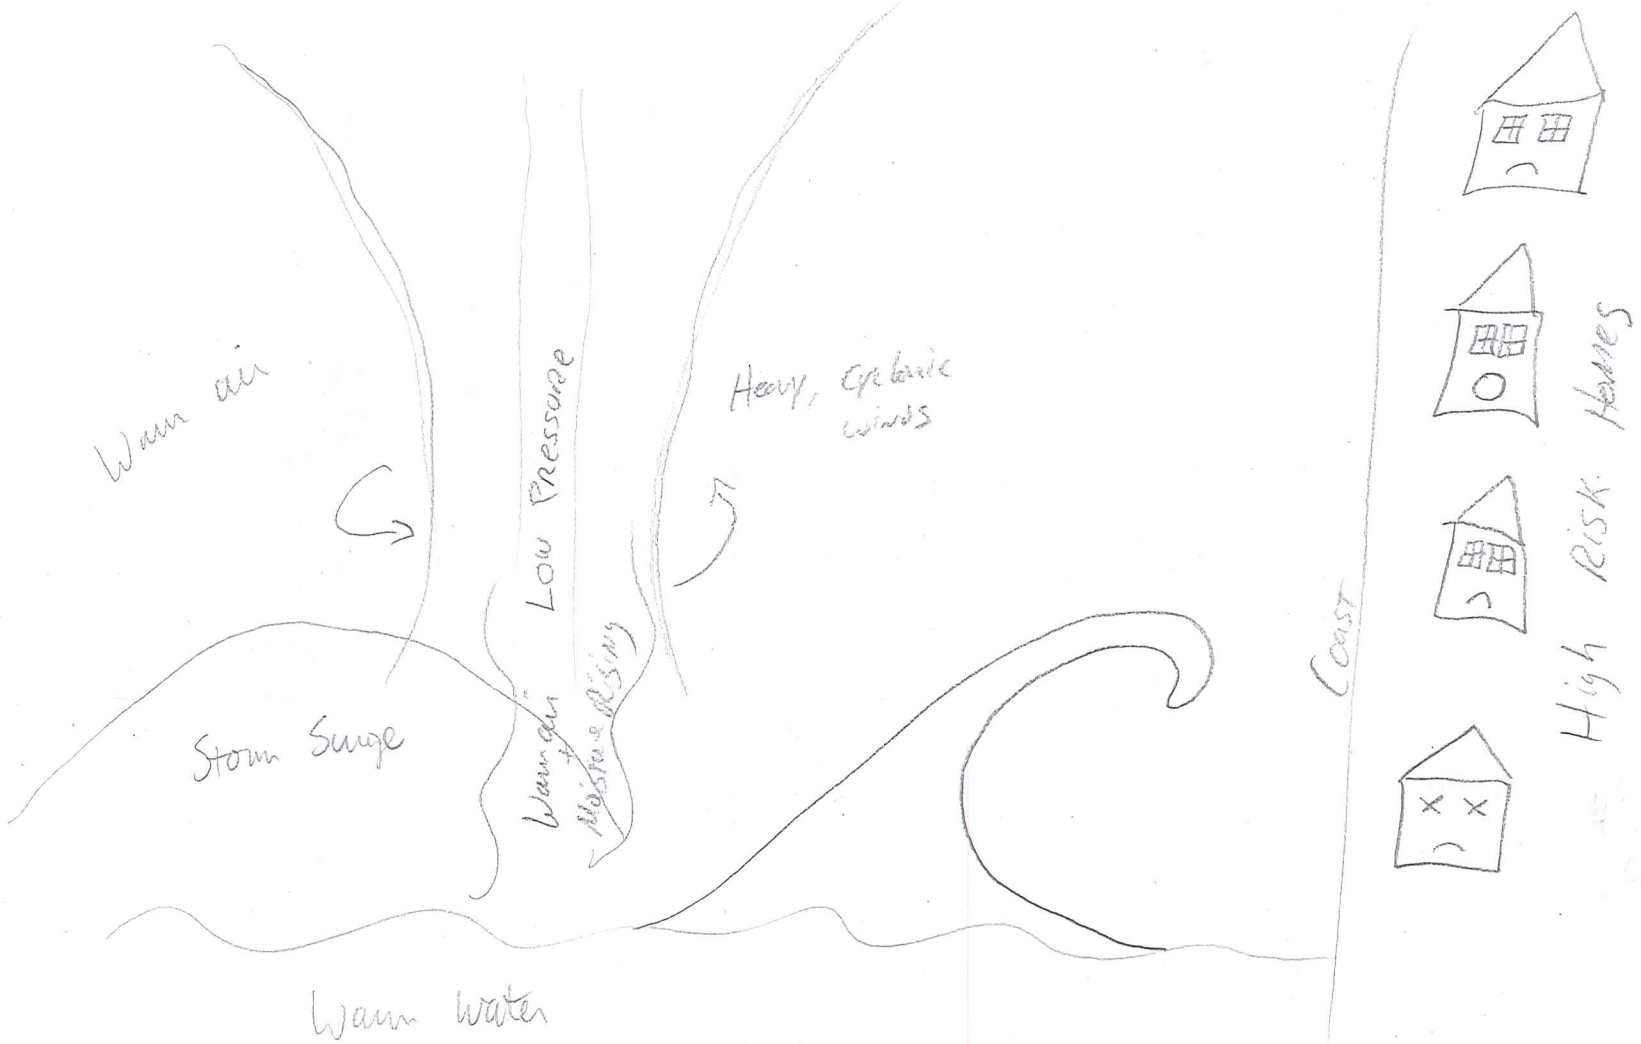
- Hazards are dangerous events or behaviors - risk is the probability of hazards happening to an individual

- Hurricanes
  Formation
  1. warm water SST
  2. Instability of atmosphere
  3. Little or no vertical wind sheer
  4. Sufficient latitude

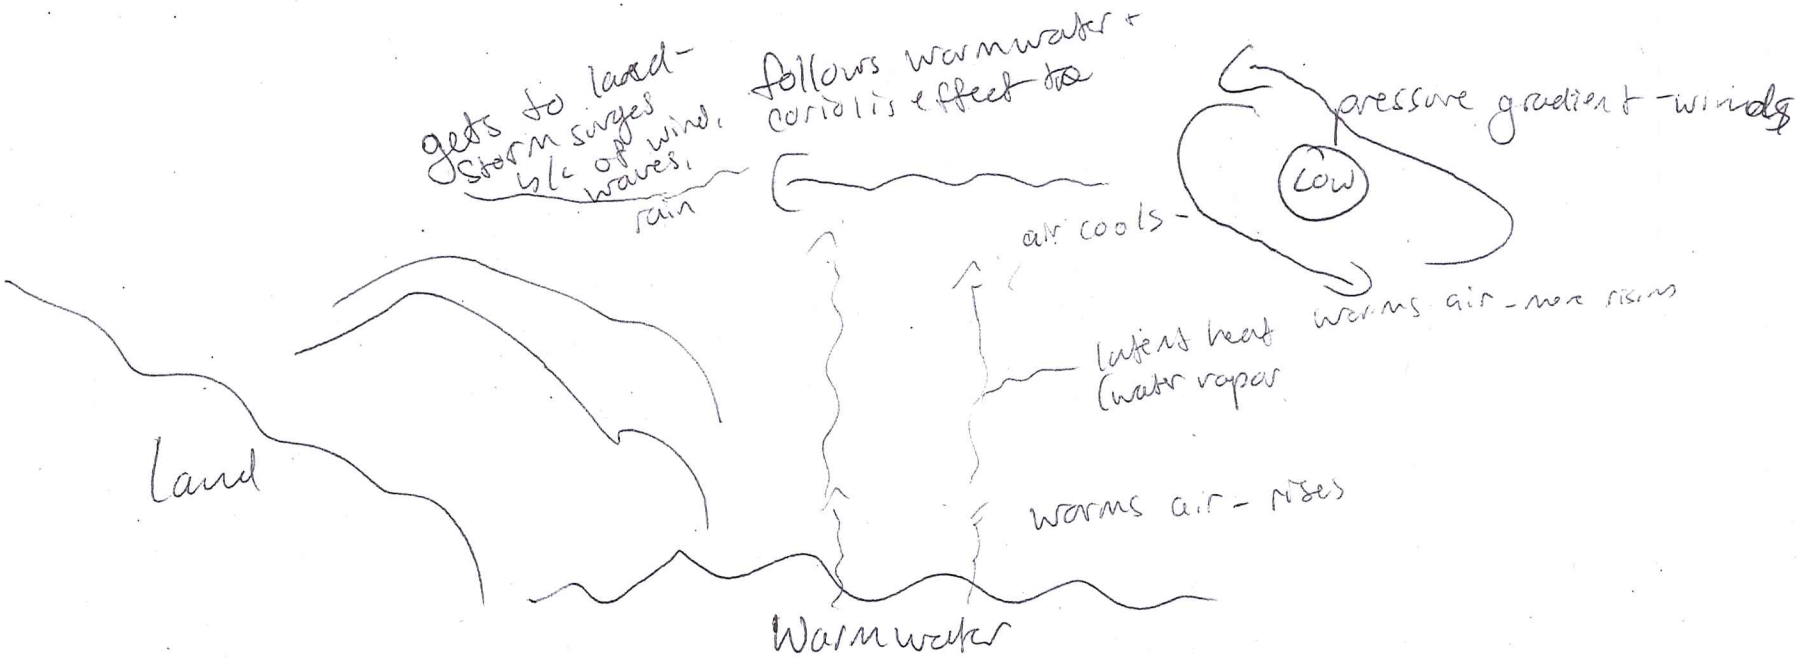
Hurricanes weaken after they hit land but could get stronger right before landfall



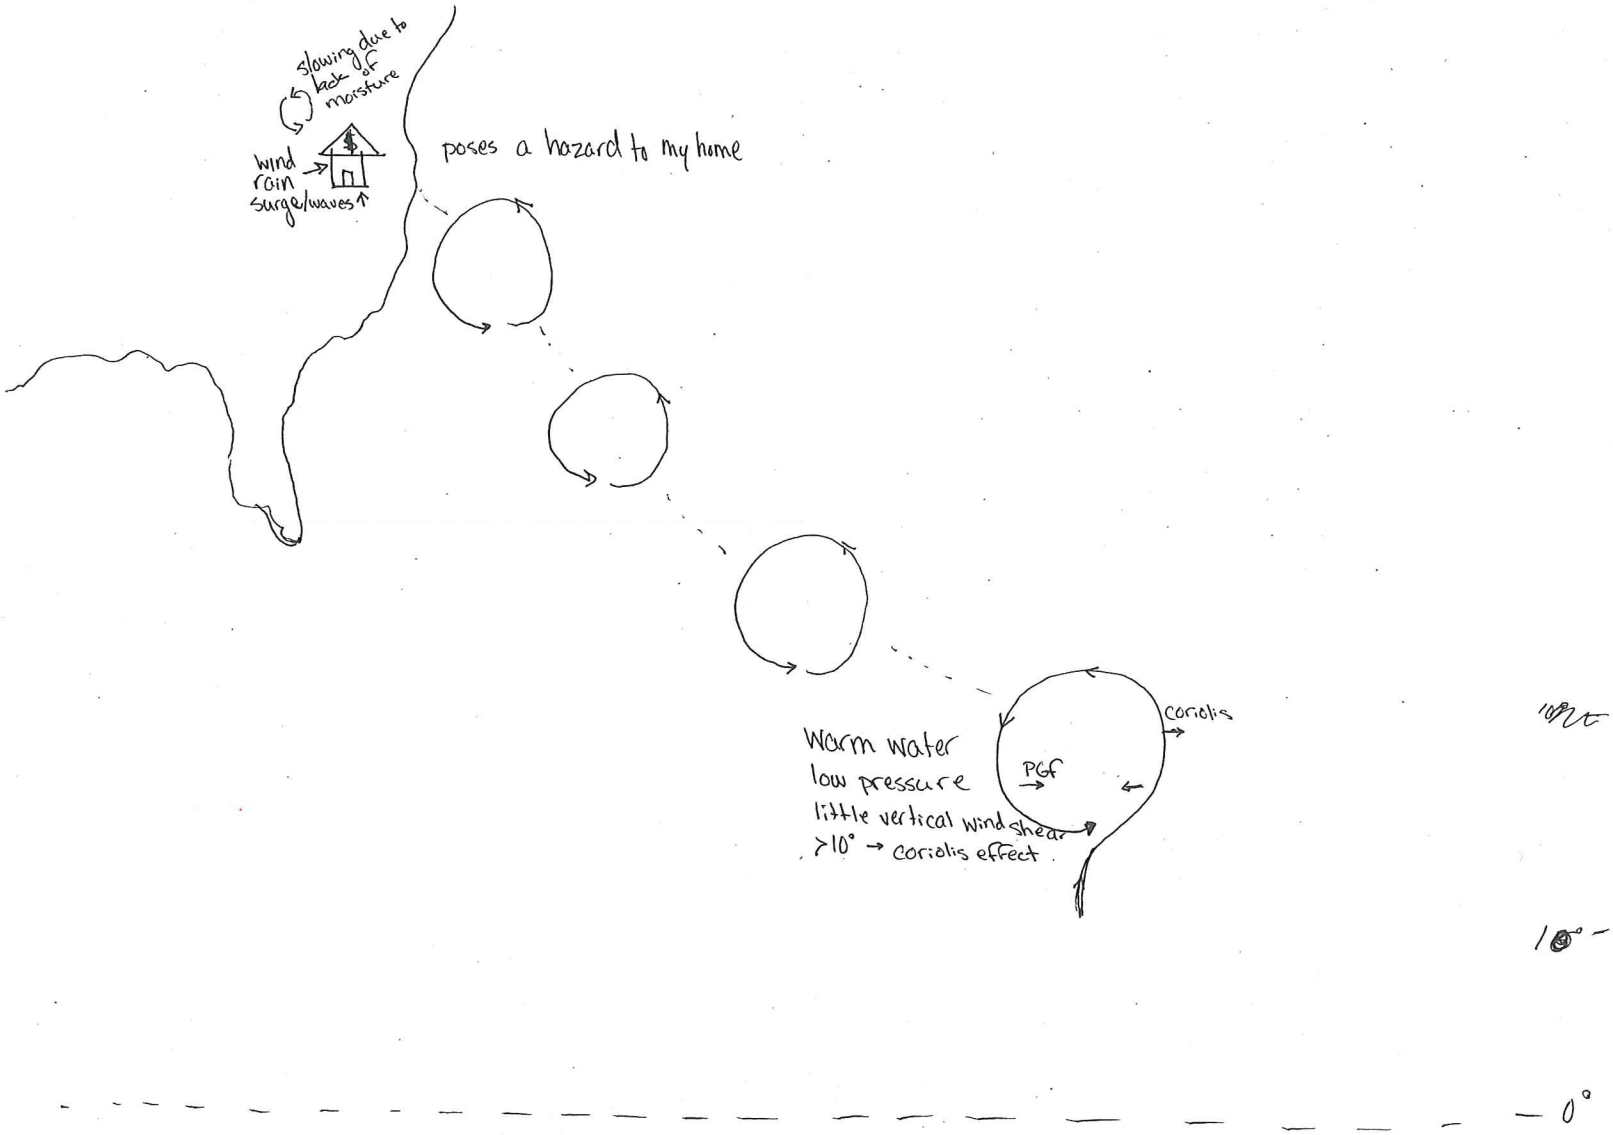
Sophie Schleicher



Cusey McClellan

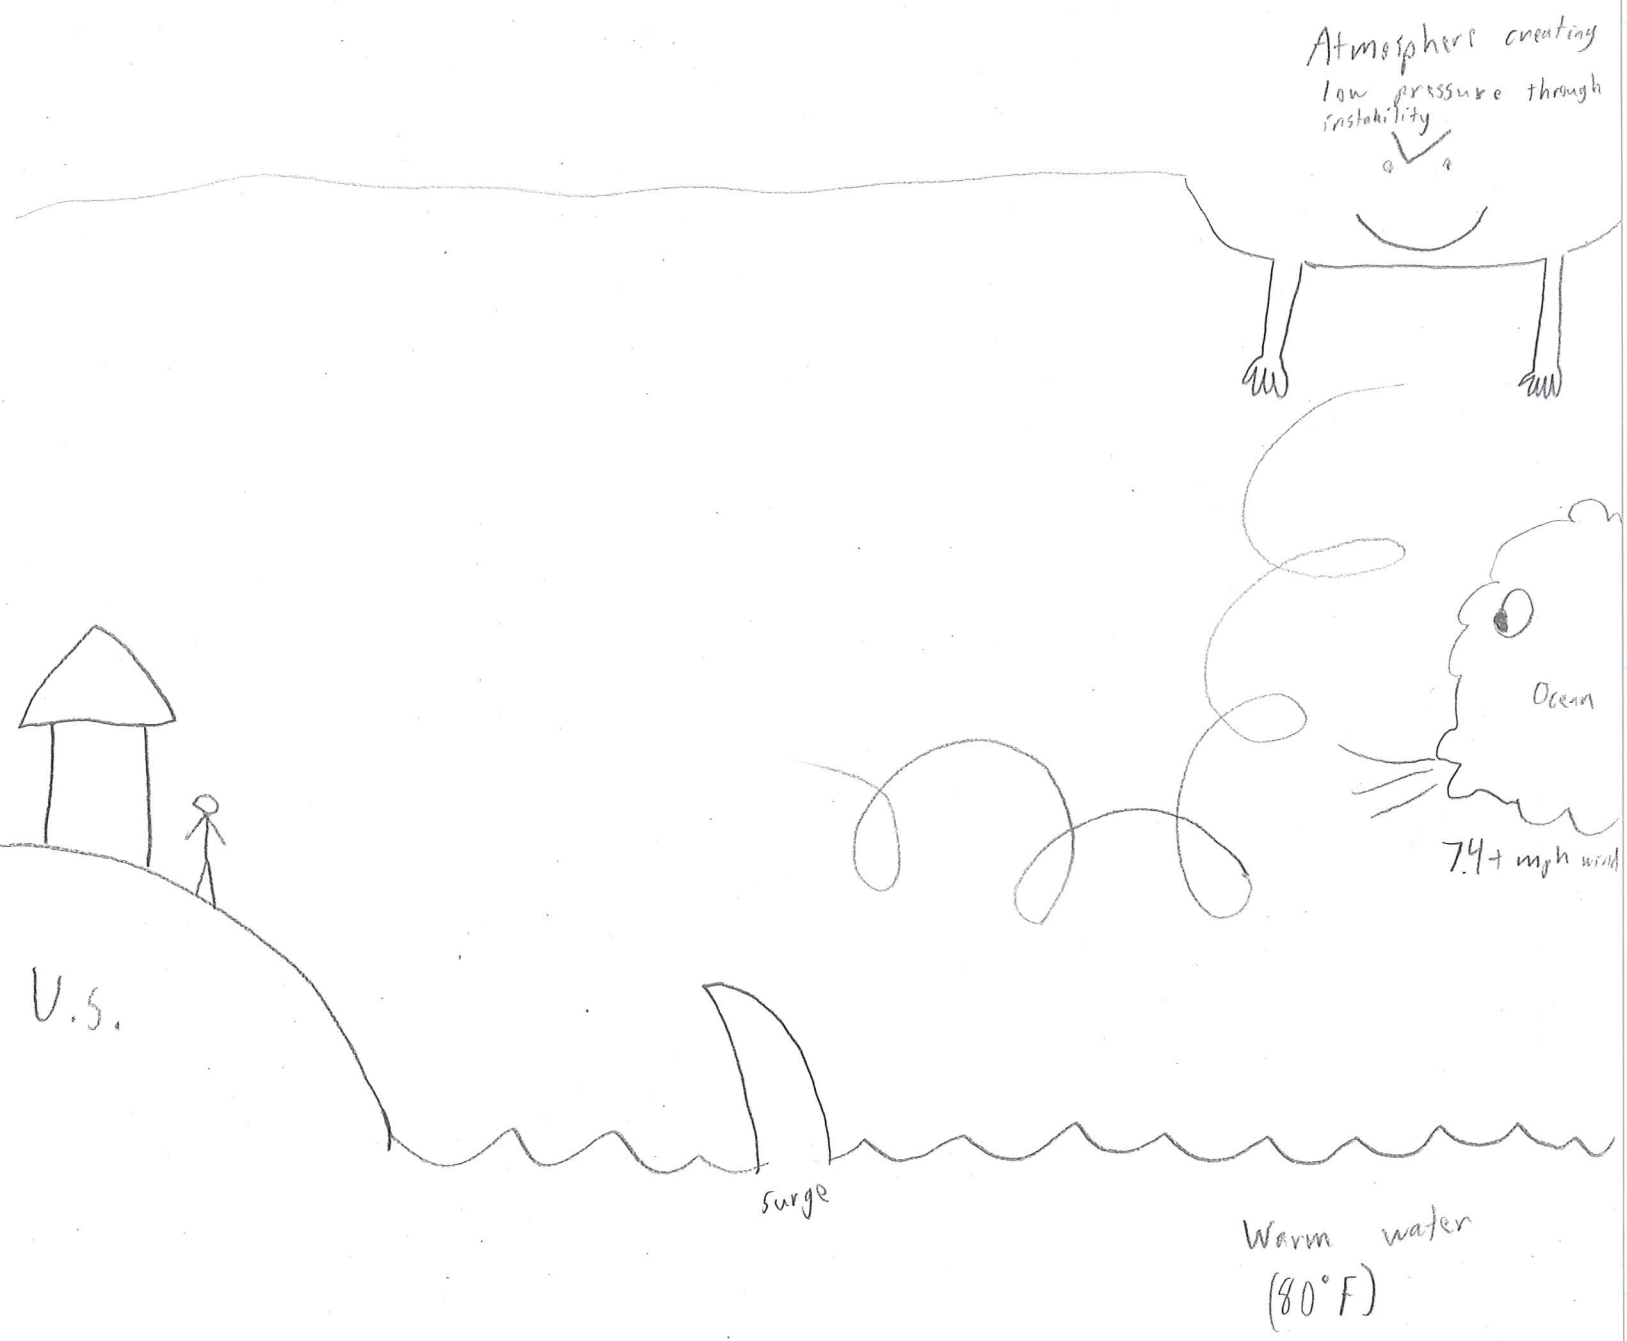


Molly Pickel



Julie
Jung

Chris Blakesky



Alex Dion
AD.

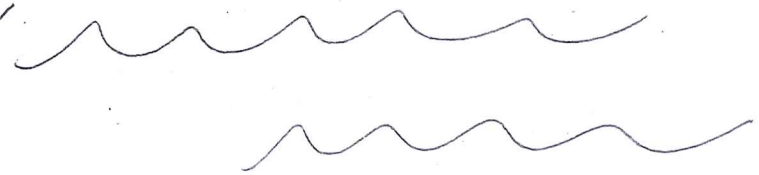
Hurricanes

Area w/ a latitude greater than 5–10° off equator.

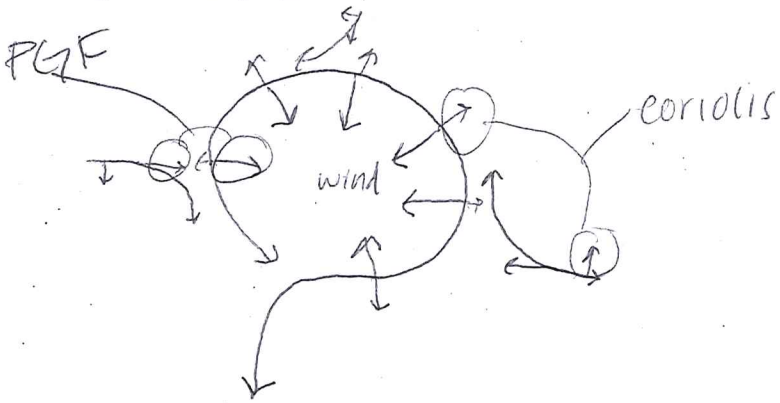
little to no vertical wind shear.

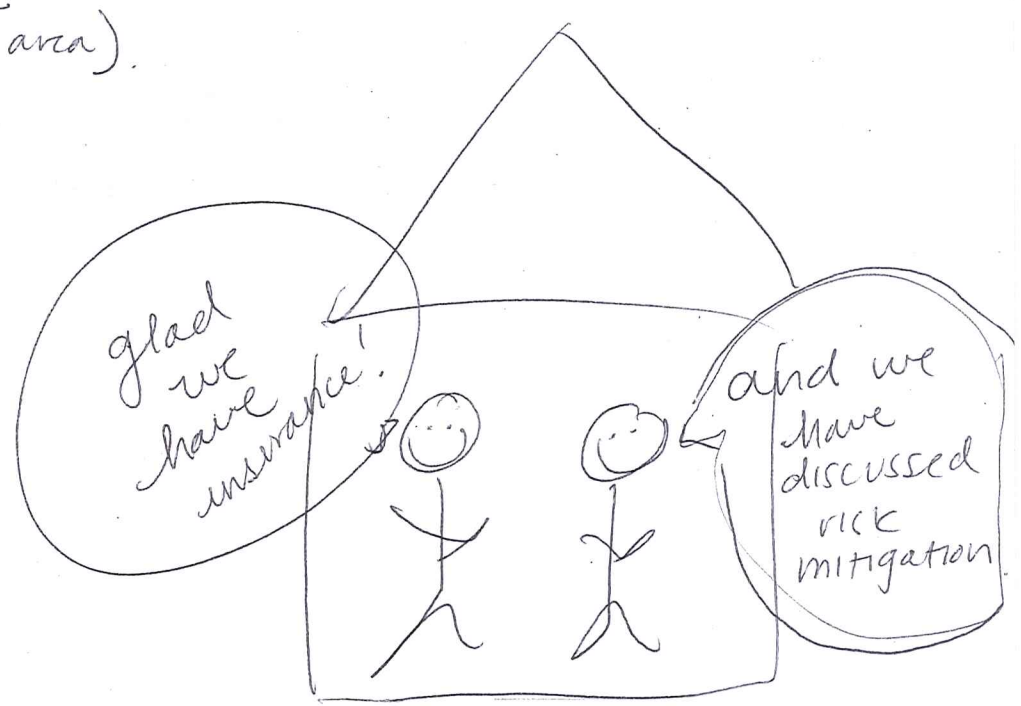
temp = greater than 26.5°C (over large area).

instability in the atmosphere



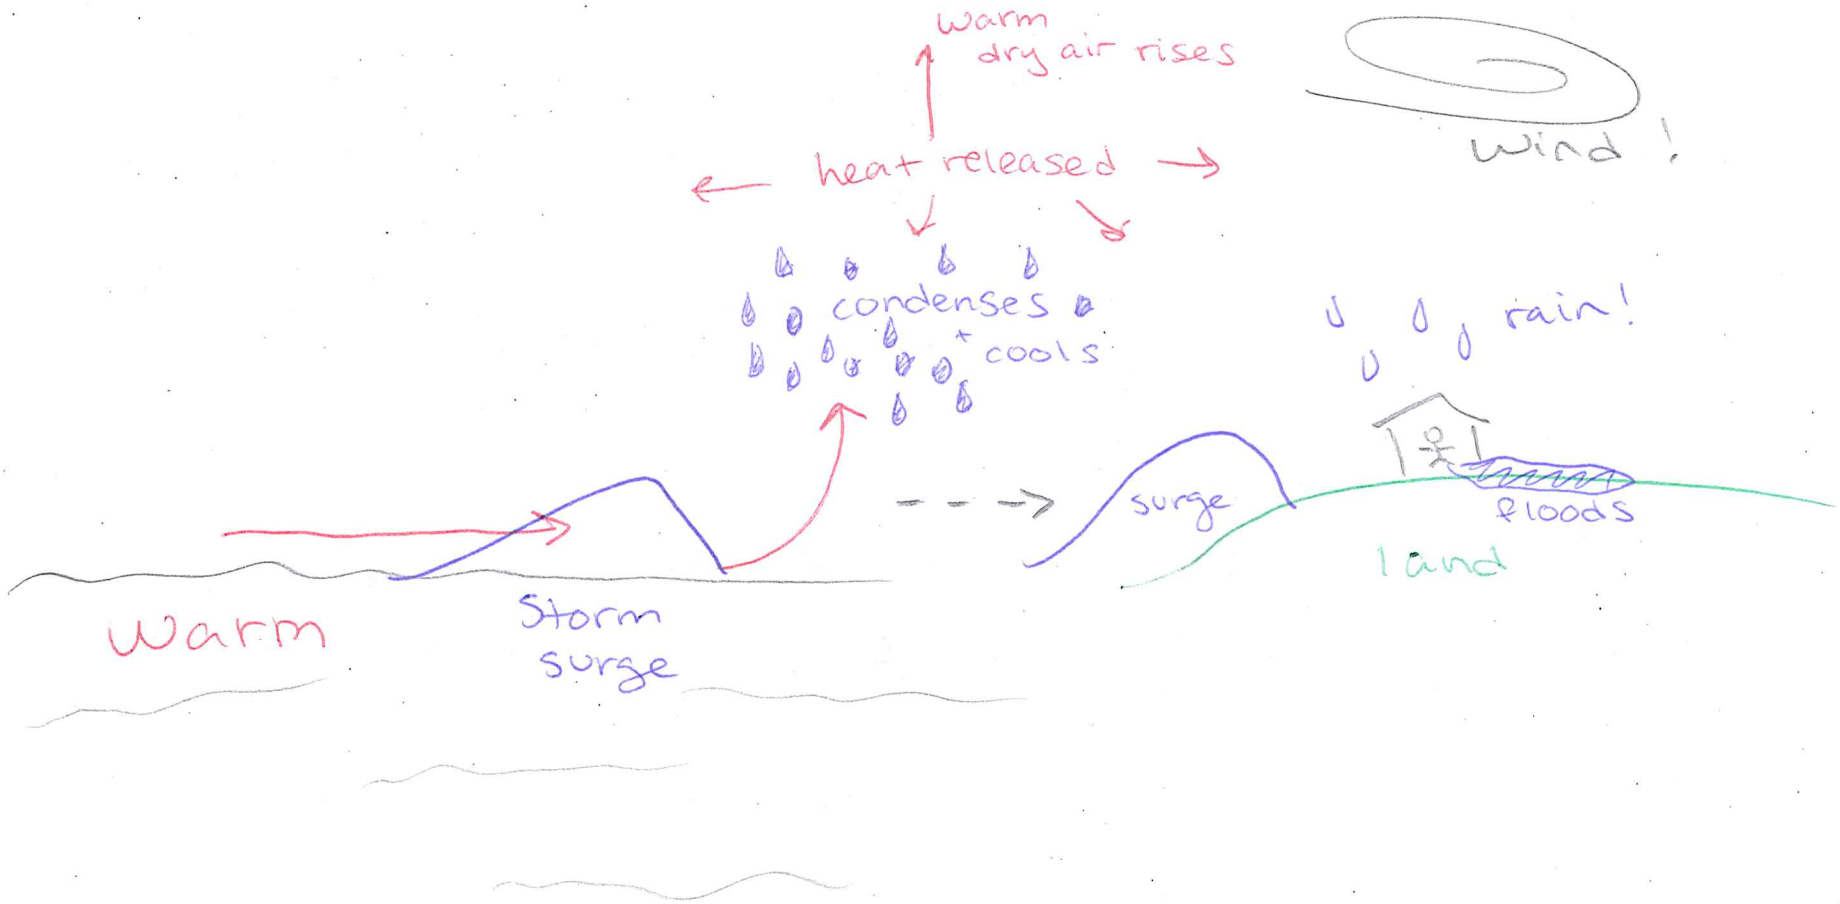
Coriolis effect



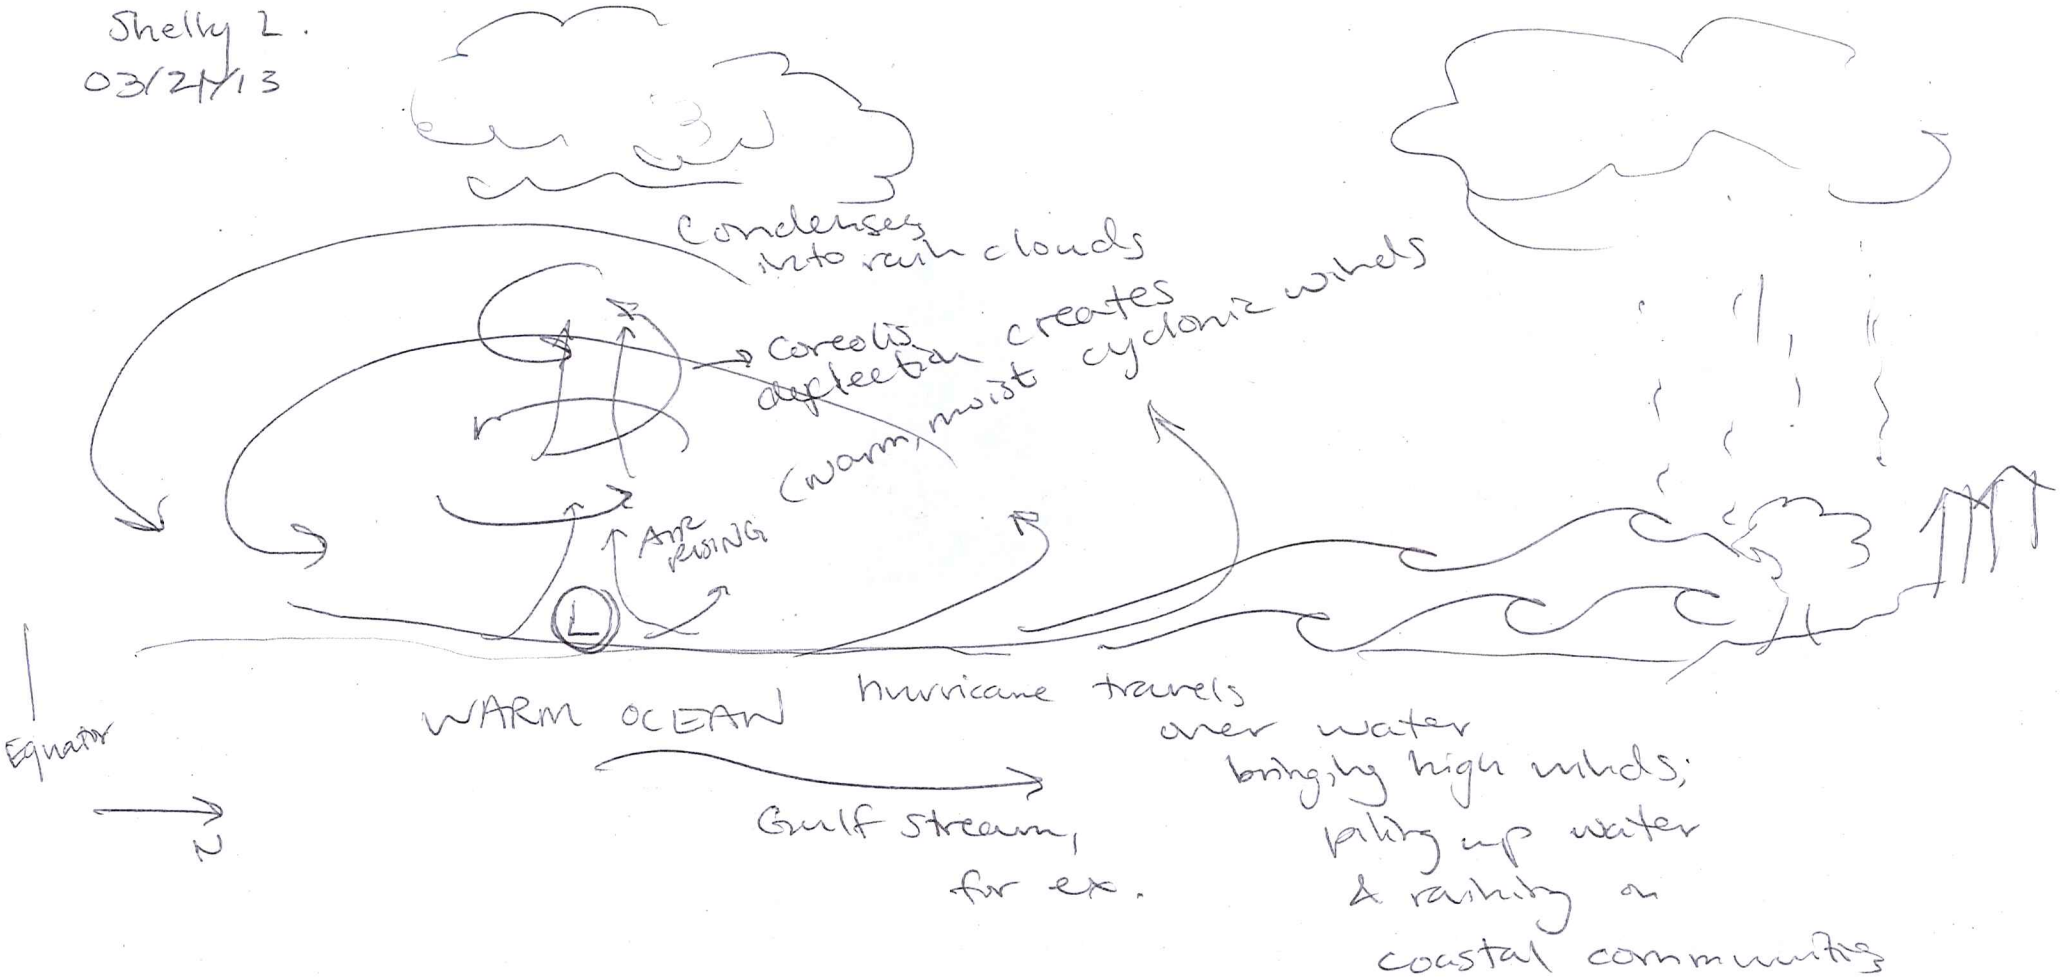


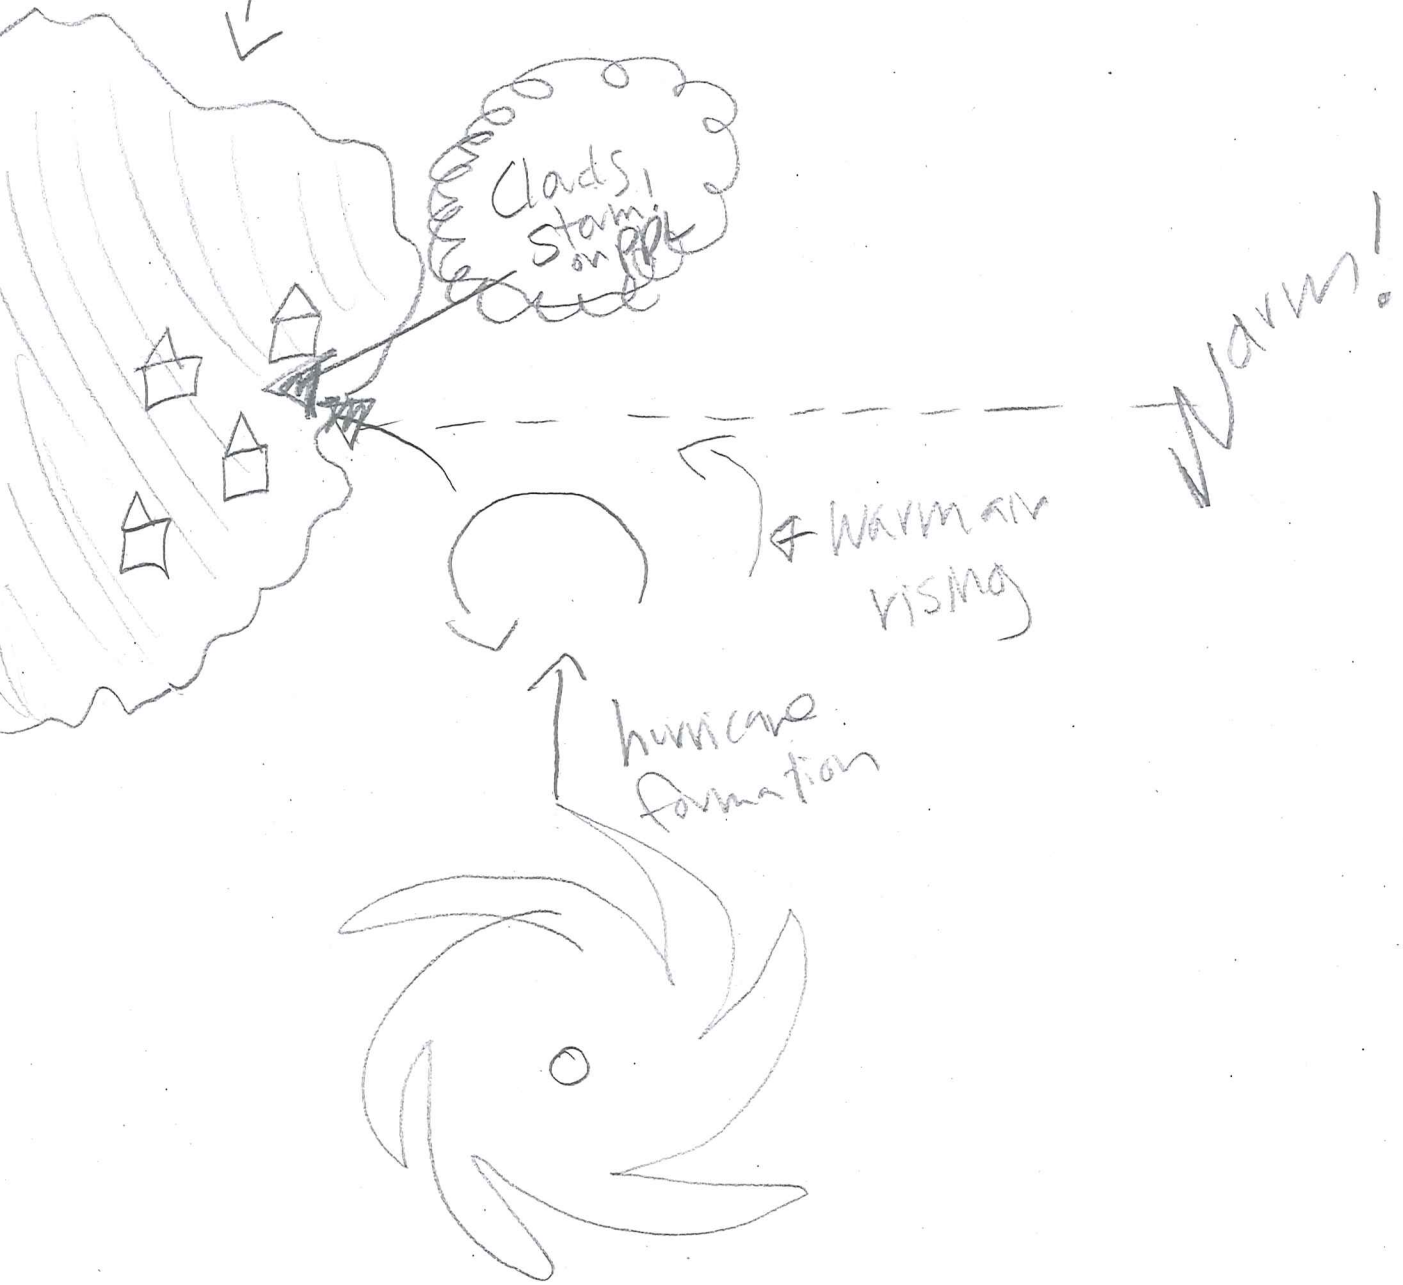
Lily

Relationship btw ocean Atmosphere + people in hurricane



Shelly L.
03/21/13



Melissa


Glontotiperous nica tik glaga wa Ubama Island