

Using a Change Framework and Assessing Institutional Change
ASCN Transforming Institutions Conference, April 2019

Pre-workshop Assignment

Assignment: Create a draft vision statement for teaching and learning

What to do:

- Consider the future state of teaching at your institution or in the department in which you are interested in enacting change. As you envision that future, what would be different about the teaching and learning environment? What would you be able to see in that future?
- Use the prompt below to identify 3-5 characteristics that capture your vision for the future.
- You may want to brainstorm ideas with others at your institution or in your department to create the draft vision statement.

Teaching and learning at _____ will be characterized by:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Bring your draft vision statement to the workshop in Pittsburgh.
