

The CLEAN Network - 2017 and Beyond

CLEAN Network Teleconference
November 29, 2016 1:00 pm-2 pm ET

1. CLEAN Network leadership structure and infrastructure support - A Need
2. Formation of the CLEAN Network Leadership Board
 - a. Members
 - i. Frank Niepold, NOAA Climate Program Office, Co-Chair
 - ii. Anne Gold, CIRES University of Colorado, CLEAN Core Project Director, Co-Chair
 - iii. Don Duggan-Haas, Paleontological Research Institute & Museum of Earth
 - iv. Kristen Poppleton, Climate Generation, a Will Steger Legacy
 - v. Jen Kretser, The Wild Center
 - vi. Susan Sullivan, CIRES University of Colorado (CLEAN Core co-PI)
 - vii. Rebecca Anderson, Alliance for Climate Education, ACE
 - viii. Oksana Shcherba, Institute of the Golden Gate
 - ix. Minda Berbeco, Sierra Club, San Francisco Bay Chapter
 - x. Billy Spitzer, New England Aquarium and National Network for Ocean and Climate Change Interpretation (NNOCCI)
 - xi. Anita Davis, Earth to Sky, NASA
 - xii. Jim Brey, American Meteorological Society, retired
 - xiii. Johanna Bozuwa, ESIP Fellow, Graduate Student, Utrecht University, The Netherlands
 - xiv. Tamara Ledley, TERC and Harvard Advanced Leadership Initiative
 - b. Purpose of the CLEAN Network Leadership Board - Provide collective leadership and institutional knowledge for the network.
 - i. There is also a need that as decisions need to be made that impact the network that there is collective agreement on those decisions.
 - ii. Transitions can be made smoothly as members move on and new leadership evolves.
 - iii. CLEAN Network Management and Facilitation Responsibilities
3. CLEAN Core - TERC & CIRES, Univ of Colorado Boulder partnership
CLEAN Collection maintenance review, review of new resources, marketing activities to educators, integration of CLEAN content between teaching support and resources, NGSS tagging, Facebook posting, and associated activities will continue with the limited funding from NOAA.
4. Major CLEAN Network Transitions for 2017

- a. Facilitation, Coordination and Organization of the CLEAN Network Teleconferences
 - i. Facilitators: Don Duggan-Haas, Kristen Poppleton, Frank Niepold, Jen Kretser, Rebecca Anderson
 - ii. Ongoing coordination: Johanna Bozuwa
 - iii. Oversight: Anne Gold

- b. Other ongoing CLEAN Network activities that will be transitioned to CLEAN Network Volunteers
 - i. Listserv
 - ii. Facebook page and interaction with with climate literacy social media campaign community (#Teach4Climate, #Youth4Climate)
 - iii. Organizing Climate Literacy sessions at professional meetings GSA; NAAEE; AGU

- c. The CLEAN Network - a Cluster within the Earth Science Information Partners (ESIP)
 - i. What is ESIP - a 501(c)3
 - ii. What ESIP has to offer the CLEAN Network
 - 1. GoToMeeting Platform for ongoing weekly CLEAN Network teleconferences, as well as for other meetings as we need to arrange. This comes with the technical support from ESIP Employee Dan Keyes as needed.
 - 2. Venue of the semi-annual meetings to take advantage of if needed.
 - 3. Funding Opportunities - as a cluster we could apply for small level of funds - travel to meetings, seed money, FUNding Friday
 - 4. We can submit proposals through the ESIP Federation with the lead investigator as PI.
 - 5. ESIP Fellow - Johanna Bozuwa - Johanna has been an ESIP Fellow in support of the CLEAN Network (and the ESIP Standing Committee for Education) since February 2016. She has just had her application to be a fellow in 2017 approved.
 - 6. ESIP Wiki page - which will point to the CLEAN Portal and access to esip-all listserv.
 - 7. Other - example: Application to become a credentialed organization for future UNFCCC-COP meetings