

Is Your Region Ready for a Drought?

PART A: Drought Impacts

1. List several of the drought impacts reported in your own or other states. Classify each impact as economic, environmental, or social and include justification for the classification.

2. Project the results of one or more of the drought impacts you read about into the future. What economic, environmental, or social impacts could follow if drought worsens or persists for one or more years?