

Using GPS data to analyze crustal strain or

Where is the boundary between the Pacific and North American plates?

An example of the strain ellipse students make with the Matlab code.

