GEOL1, self-evaluation #1

Please take some thoughtful time to evaluate your own technical skills and soft skills in GEOL1 so far this semester. I will use your self-evaluation as part of your performance review, and we'll talk about it together when we meet to discuss the performance review.

It doesn't matter what I think or what your colleagues think. This is about what YOU think.

Here are what the ratings mean in your self-evaluation:

1: Performance exceeds the standard.

This means that in your opinion, your performance is above and beyond what is expected. Outstanding performance.

2: Performance meets the standard.

This means that in your opinion, your performance is what is expected. There are no problems, issues, complaints, areas for improvement, etc. Very good performance.

3: Improvement recommended.

This means that in your opinion, your performance is not as strong as what is expected and could be better. Performance needs improvement.

4: Performance does not meet the standard.

This means that in your opinion, your performance is not acceptable. Unsatisfactory performance.

5: Not applicable/no data available.

This means that you don't have any information. Not applicable.
