Getting ready to teach your team assignment

Step back and think about what you have learned as a team. What are the *most important messages that you want to convey about your team assignment? Write 3-4 sentences below that summarize what you think is important. Be sure to organize the ideas in a logical sequence.

What is the evidence supporting your statements above? Make a bulleted list for each statement above that contains what you need to include (observations, data, etc.) in your explanation to someone else in order to elaborate on your summary statements and to provide evidence that what you are saying is reasonable.
